

The State of Washington

CAPAA

COMMISSION ON ASIAN PACIFIC
AMERICAN AFFAIRS

Improving the lives of Asian Pacific Americans

Asian Pacific Islander
COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP
Foundation

January 25, 2011

Contact: 360/725-5667

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ACLF Welcomes our CAPAA Fellow, Justin Chan

OLYMPIA, WA - Justin Chan was born in Singapore and raised in Bellevue, Washington. He has extensive graphic design, PR and social media experience in the public sector. He designed the official program cover for the 2010 Washington State Democratic Convention as a Development/Event Intern at Washington State Democratic Central Committee. He also worked for Northwest Passage Consulting, drafting mail pieces, and conducting extensive research on voting trends, media coverage, and legislative activity. He is currently the IT Director for the Young Democrats of Washington and aspires to attend law school.

Justin graduated from the University of Washington with a Bachelor's in Political Economics and a Minor in Music. He served in the ASUW Senate and served as President of the UW Chinese Student Association, planning and attending numerous philanthropic and cultural events that supported the local Chinese community.

###

Agency Overview: The CAPAA was established by the state legislature in 1974 to improve the well-being of Asian Pacific Americans (APAs) by insuring their access to participation in the fields of government, business, education, and other areas. It has a board made up of 12-governor appointed members that represent the diverse APA communities of Washington State. Visit us at www.capaa.wa.gov